FOUL RIDING AT JUAREZ

JOCKEY BURLINGAME IS SUSPENDED AND HIS MOUNT SUFFERS DISQUALIFICATION.

Boy Interferes with Several of His Opponents and Nearly Causes One to Fall—Mutuels for Coeur d'Alene Meeting.

El Paso, Tex., March 15.—The first disqualification of the Juarez meeting took place when Arden was displaced after finishing first in the third race this afternoon. It was a selling affair at six furlongs. Arden was ridden by jockey Burlingame, who started to head his opposition at the head of the stretch. When he thought he had bumped the most formidable of his opponents out of contention, he saw Azura coming along the rail. Then he deliberately guided his mount over and forced jockey Hill to pull up so sharply that his mount almost fell. This occurred within the plain sight of all the spectators. Presiding Steward Broviage and his associate, John T. Ireland, immediately disqualified Arden, placing him last. Jockey Burlingame was suspended for the remainder of the meeting.

Two favorites scored, while the other four races went to horses at liberal odds. Gemvett, which has not started for some time, was sent to the post fit and ready by his owner-trainer, W. C. Clancy, and easily disposed of his opposition. Owner Clancy holds a record for the meeting on account of having saddled seven winners out of eight sent to the post.

Kootenay won the handicap after a hard struggle in the stretch. Irish Gentleman, running kindly today, was closing fast. The pacemakers, Pride of Lismore and Lady Panchita, both quit badly at the end. The time of the race was fast, being within two-fifths of a second of the track record of 1:11.5.

Engraver was claimed out of the last race yesterday by Frank Richart for $625.

Frank W. Smith has instructed John Dime to complete the program book for the first week of the season, which will be the minimum amount given away during the sixty-one days of racing at the Idaho course. The handicaps will range from $500 upwards and there will be several stakes, including the Coeur d'Alene Derby, the conditions of which will be announced later. The association will install the pari-mutuels as the form of betting for the meeting. A large number of horsemen now racing at Juarez have signified their intention of shipping to Alan at the close of the racing here.

M. Foley has arranged to ship his stable tomorrow to Norfolk, Va. He holds the contract on the apprentice rider A. Halsey, who will go with him to the Virginia track.

Jockey McDonald was suspended for five days by starter Cassidy for disobedience while riding Flying. T. Wood, who has been in ill health, disposed of the following two-year-olds at auction here this week: Shadrach, to C. E. Rogers for $850; Yally-Yip, A. C. McCafferty, $300; Yip-Hy-Ya, L. L. Mason, $100; Moshach, W. J. Weber, $325, and Albeduco, W. J. Weber, $525.

SCHORR HORSES TO RACE IN KENTUCKY.

Rich Stake Programs Influence Last Year's Leading Owner to Modify His 1913 Plans.

Louisville, Ky., March 15.—Announcement was made yesterday by John F. Schorr that his father's formidable stable of thoroughbreds would race here through the Churchill Downs and Douglas Park spring meetings instead of leaving after the running of the Kentucky Derby for the Canadian circuit.

Last season Mr. Schorr led the list of money-winning horsemen in America, and his stable is regarded as one of the strongest that will compete at the local tracks for the rich stakes which have been announced. Leochares, which earned considerable fame last season on the Canadian circuit, will carry the colors of the Tennessee turfman in the Kentucky Derby this spring, while Star Charter has been nominated to start in the all-aged events.

Mr. Schorr had previously announced that soon after the running of the Kentucky Derby he would take his horses to Canada, where his great success of last season was one of the features of the season. He wavered in this decision, however, when it was found that practically all of the stakes and purses had been increased in value by the Kentucky tracks. The Kentucky Handicap, a $10,000 added event, which is being put on for its initial running this spring by the Douglas Park Jockey Club, and other rich events, were too tempting to be passed up.

In the Schorr string there are six two-year-old colts and two fillies which look like future winners. They have not yet been named. With this lot of

ENTRIES FOR THE LATONIA AND DOUGLAS PARK STAKES FORESHADOW A BRILLIANT RACING SEASON IN KENTUCKY

Cincinnati, O., March 15.—Evidences continue to multiply that Kentucky is to be the scene during the coming spring and summer of the most brilliant racing ever enjoyed in this section of the country. General Manager John Hachmeister today gave out information concerning the entries to the recently closed stakes of the Douglas Park Jockey Club and the Latonia Jockey Club that bears out the idea formed when the conditions of these rich events were announced a month or so ago that the cream of American thoroughbreds would be found in action on the Kentucky circuit this season. The stakes to be run at both Kentucky tracks over whose destinies Mr. Hachmeister presides filled wonderfully well, both in regard to quality and numbers. For the four stakes to be decided at Douglas Park, 325 entries were received, divided as follows:

Kentucky Handicap 59
Memorial Handicap 62
Spring Trial Stakes 117
Speculation Stakes 87

The fifty-nine entries for the Kentucky Handicap, $10,000 added, one mile and a quarter, represent the pick of the horses three years old and over that will race in this country this season. The list of the eligibles for this richest of American stakes is as follows:

Adair & Baker's Busy.
A. L. Aste's Ten Point and Eyebrow.
H. Bentzinger's Labord.

For the nine stakes to be run at Latonia, the truly splendid total of 722 entries were received. The Latonia Derby, one and a half miles, $6,000 added, is the topner and the three-year-olds, including the best of that age in the land, make up the list of eligibles, as follows:

A. L. Aste's Ten Point.

youngsters the Memphis turfman hopes to win his share of juvenile events this spring. The two-year-old stakes this spring are rich enough to attract the best youngsters in the country.

The Schorr stable is quartered at Douglas Park, but no fast work has been given any of the Schorr horses yet, as there is still plenty of time, and they can be prepared for the long campaign without hurry. It is hardly probable that all of the Memphis turfman's horses will be taken to the meeting at Lexington, but they will be ready on May 10, when the spring racing season is inaugurated here.

Louisville, Ky., March 15.—In point of class and interest, no turf events in America will surpass the Kentucky Derby, Clark Handicap and Kentucky Oaks, the star features of the spring meeting at Churchill Downs, the opening date of which is May 10, when the Derby is to be decided. The Oaks will have the place of honor of the final day's program, on May 24.

Hawthorn, equal choice with Helios for the Derby, and now in training at the Downs, has every mark of a thoroughbred of the highest type. To illustrate how he has grown and filled out, he was weighed and tipped the beam at 1,040 pounds. High Private, at the same time, scaled at 1,090 pounds. Trainer W. S. Trevey is gratified over the condition of Hawthorn. Naturally he is picking him to be the Derby winner.

Jack Adkins, first to arrive from a winter campaign at Juarez, was glad to reach Churchill Downs notwithstanding that he had a profitable run of fortune at the Mexican course, having won the Juarez Handicap with the speedy Buckhorn, and the Senorita Stakes with Superl, while Helen Barbee won four purses, and Melton Street also scored. Mr. Adkins likes to train his racers over the Downs course, which explains his early return here.

E. R. Bradley will race a band of twenty-seven horses on the Kentucky circuit this season. J. W. Schorr's great stable, in its entirety, will be campaigned this spring in Kentucky.

George J. Long's youngsters look fine. Free Lance is doing slow work and is rounding to. Trainer Pete Coyne says that this sensational performer will fully recover from the accident which forced his retirement last year.

There is every evidence at the Downs that the racing season is drawing near. Many racers are being galloped daily.

BALLOT'S BOOK ALREADY FILLED.

Lexington, Ky., March 15.—John Mackey, who for years has been James B. Haggin's chief lieutenant in turf, racing and breeding affairs, is expected to arrive at Elmendorf Farm in about ten days. He has been spending the winter at Sacramento, Cal. He is coming to inspect the thoroughbred stallions, mares, yearlings and foals and he will find them all in good health and condition. There far there are seven foals this season, as follows:

Bay colt by Galveston—Lychee Nut.
Bay colt by Hessian—Teatro.
Brown colt by Waterboy—Yvonne.
Brown colt (half-brother to Hessian and Mary Davis), by Waterboy—Colonial.
Bay filly by Waterboy—Soliloquy.
Bay filly by Waterboy—Ogalala.
Brown filly by Galveston—Phida.

The great race mare, Tradition, was sent over from Elmendorf to Hamburg Place last week and mated with Star Shoot. Hamburg Belle, which is due to foal to Waterboy in about two weeks, will go to the court the same sire. Several of the Elmendorf mares will go to Ballot, but their names have not been announced. John E. Madden announced today that Ballot's book is full.

Hal P. Headley, master of the Beaumont and La Belle Farms, has the distinction of having booked the largest number of mares to Ballot. He will send seventeen of his matrons to the son of Voter. They include Princess Orna, Ava Marie, Chum, Genius, May Hempstead, Tart, Lady Savoy, Jahusi McKenna, Xarco, Dreamy Eyes, Tehera, Pauline Deering, Spunker, Nigella, Star Dreamer, Cur-purse and Proclaim. In the event any of these prove barren, any of the following five may be substituted: St. Ursula, Undecided, Ollie Belle, Thoughtless and Dorval.

STAKE DATES AT LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., March 15.—The Kentucky Association's spring stakes according to an announcement made by Secretary Garret D. Wilson today, will be run on the following dates:

Phoenix Hotel Spring Handicap, opening day, April 26.
Asland Oaks, April 29.
Idle Hour Stakes, May 1.
Blue Grass Stakes, May 3.
Camden Handicap, May 6.
Brewers' Selling Stakes, May 7.
Breeders' Futurity, closing day, May 8.

STAIRS IS DISQUALIFIED

HORSE SWERVES IN STRETCH AT PALMETTO PARK AND INTERFERES WITH OTHERS.

Naughty Lad Profits by Stewards' Ruling—Gordon Is Returned Winner of the Calhoun Stakes—More Rain Falls.

Charleston, S. C., March 15.—Seven races with the Calhoun Stakes for juveniles at four and a half furlongs as the feature, was the attractive offering at Palmetto Park today. There was a generous turnout despite adverse weather conditions. The threatened rain held off until the running of the sixth race, but thereafter it came down in a steady stream. An incident of the closing dash was the disqualification of Stairs, which had finished first, in advance of Naughty Lad and Lucky George. His displacement from participating in the purse came as a result of his swerving in the stretch and interfering with Naughty Lad, Lucky George and Annie Sellers. The last name was the chief sufferer, but it is doubtful if she could have won even with a clear course, for Stairs finished with much in reserve. The disqualification, the first of the season, caused considerable grumbling. Stairs was a "good thing" and showed marked improvement over recent starts, probably due to the addition of blinkers to his equipment.

Of interest to the racing fraternity was the presence of Governor Blease at the course. The state's chief executive took a keen interest in the racing and its attendant incidents. He witnessed some of the races as the guest of the stewards, inspected the plant and paid a call to the jockeys' quarters, where he shook hands with most of the riders. He applauded the winners in generous fashion.

J. L. Holland's Gordon easily proved his superiority over Chas. Cannell and Please Welles, the only other contestants in the Calhoun Stakes. He drew away to win at his leisure, and Chas. Cannell outstayed Please Welles for second place.

The mile allowance race, in which the Bedwell pair, Paton and Early Light, ruled at odds-on, went to Flora Fina in a hard drive. Paton taking second place and Early Light third. Monocacy, Henpeck and Early Light, Palmetto Derby candidates, were contestants in this race.

The closest finish of the afternoon developed in the opener when Ethelbert H. just lasted to beat Mary Godmother. Tony W. backed extensively. Took the second race after a mild drive to shake off York Lad. Cherryola had a narrow escape from defeat in the fifth by Billy Vanderveer, which forced her out to the last ounce to win by a neck.

The stewards attended to the rough riders this afternoon and in addition to finishing Ford $25, had sessions with Buxton and Montour. Action in their cases will come Monday.

A. B. Gallaher, who has been here for some time negotiating with Jockey Musgrave for his services during the coming season, will leave in the morning for Lexington with Musgrave. Mr. Gallaher announced that his good racer Duval has been retired from racing and has been put in the stud. The mares he has served include Mary Talbot, Royal Captive and Trance. Gold Mine will be mated with him on her arrival at Lexington.

The Norfolk stakes, which closed today, received liberal attention from owners here. There will be a big shipment to the Norfolk track following the close of racing here.

The horses of J. M. Goode and L. H. Adair will be sent to Kentucky immediately after the close of the Palmetto Park meeting.

J. W. May's stable will be sent from here to Lexington.

Jockey Goose received an offer today from T. P. Hayes to ride his representative in the rich Breeders' Futurity Stakes to be decided during the spring meeting at Lexington, but had to decline the offer because of prior arrangements to ride Billy Stuart in the Palmetto Park.

The Palmetto Park was slow from a light rain this morning, when the following work-outs took place:

HIGHBRIDGE SECOND IN A BIG RACE.

The National Hunt Handicap Steeplechase of $5,000, over a distance of three and one-quarters miles, was run at Prestbury Park, Cheltenham, England, last Thursday, and was won by D. Harrison's bay or brown horse, Strangways, by St. Frusquin—Helen Star, carrying 155 pounds. The American horse, Highbridge, was top weight at 177 pounds, and finished second, Baron de Forest's brown gelding, Gale II., 152 pounds, being third. The first and third horses are good jumpers and frequent winners, so that this latest feat apparently enhances the chances of Highbridge in the Liverpool Grand National. In that event he will not be at such a disadvantage in the weights, although he has the steady impost of 168 pounds to carry.

MANY KENTUCKY MARES BARREN.

Lexington, Ky., March 15.—Broodmares of horses, both running and trotting, in this vicinity are complaining of unusual barrenness in their broodmares this spring and they are at a loss to account for the frequency of the misses. They say that the percentage of slips has been no greater than in other years if so great, and discussion of the subject of the failure of the mares to produce discloses that it has occurred in young mares that were mated with young stallions, in old mares that were mated with young stallions and in young mares that were mated with old stallions, so that it is not entirely attributable to age or impotency.

James E. Hazlett's Elmendorf Farm furnished a striking example of this unusual barrenness, for out of the seventy mares that were mated with thoroughbred stallions there last spring, no more than twenty-eight foals are expected, the remaining forty-two mares having shown conclusively that they are not in foal.

Conditions on the trotting horse breeding farms are even worse.

KING GEORGE AT THE RACES.

King George visited Sandown Park February 28 to view the jumping races on the first day of the Grand Military meeting and was enthusiastically greeted by a vast assemblage attracted largely by the fact that he was to be in attendance.

GOSSIP FROM JUAREZ TRACK.

Horses and Jockeys Destined to Take Part in Kentucky Racing During Coming Season.

El Paso, Tex., March 15.—W. H. Fizer will ship his string of horses now racing at the Jockey Club Juarez course to the track at the Kentucky racing stable at Louisville and Latonia during the coming spring and summer. Mr. Fizer did not race in Kentucky last season, but he has a handy lot of horses, especially two-year-olds, in his barn now, and with good racing luck will win a share of purses in the blue grass country. He also has first class jockey Burlingame, which rider has been riding brilliantly at the Juarez course of late. The older horses in the Fizer stable include Boca Grande, Baby Doll, Helen, Pink, Mazurka, Whidden and Brando, the latter being brother to Pink Coat and Friend Harry. The Fizer two-year-olds include the winners Attica and Little Bit. The latter was the only 160 to 1 shot to win at Juarez this season. In winning the Mexican Stakes she ran half a mile in :47 and defeated some good ones. She is a daughter of that son of Commando, Transvaal out of Grace Dixon. Attica is by Marathon—Babbie. The maiden two-year-olds in the Fizer string are: Transact, blk. c. by Transvaal—Foundling; Brevity, br. g. by Miller—Garnet B.; Autumnal, b. g. by Ireland—Autumn Leaves; and Mabel Jackson, br. f. by Alloway—Mabel Richardson. The latter is the only one of the collection which has not yet started and reports say she is a filly of much promise. Burlingame, who will go to Kentucky to ride for the Fizer stable this season, can do as light as 104 and is a strong finisher as well as being an alert rider at the barrier. He was sixth in the list of winning American jockeys last year with a record of 121 firsts. Only Hill, Turner, Gross, Butwell and Loftis outranked him in races won last season.

While no filly has ever won the Kentucky Derby, more than one shrewd horseman at the Jockey Club Juarez track has noticed that Floral Park is entitled to some consideration. In 1911 Round the World failed badly in the Derby at Churchill Downs after she had won the Juarez Derby and Juarez Oaks, but she had previously been asked to run some hard races with older horses in Mexico and was so well liked by the spectators that the Kentucky tracks. She was undoubtedly capable when at her best, as a three-year-old, of racing with any colt, filly or gelding of her age and holding her own, even up to a mile and a sixteenth, but the Derby route proved a bit too far for the daughter of Lady Ford and so she was outwitted that day by Meridian and Governor Gray. In contrast with Round the World's case, Floral Park has done no racing since last fall as a two-year-old. She has grown and spread out amazingly and for the past six weeks has been given slow cantering exercise, with a view of hardening her constitution and fleshing out her legs and oaks preparation during the next six weeks. She can run in any sort of going, though her preference is a smooth, fast track. While the Jockey Club registration gives Floral Park as of double parentage, she being reported as by Burgomaster or Hamburg, she is undoubtedly a filly of the latter, which makes her less inbred than if she was by Hamburg's son, as Burgomaster and Mineola, her dam, both trace to the same family. It is the tribe of the noted Encore, from which has descended Phil Dwyer, Helter Skelter, Applause, Mary McGowan, Harter Dwyer and many other champions.

Before leaving for Louisville this week, Dr. C. Cann fired Frazzle for A. C. McCafferty and that filly has been put by until late summer or early fall. The daughter of Plaudil had trouble with her ankles all winter, but Dr. Cann thinks the application of the iron will enable her to stand another long campaign, when she is once more put in active training. She has now been an annual winner for three seasons. Should Mr. McCafferty decide to embark in breeding he will have in Frazzle and Dominica two superb mares for future stud matrons. Both are good winners, fine individuals, and at the same time it is to be regretted that Old Rosebud, the champion and unbeaten two-year-old of the present Juarez season, is not eligible for the Breeders' Futurity at Lexington this spring. At the same time it is fortunate for other likely candidates that the Louisville owned colt is in the race, as he will reach Kentucky so thoroughly seasoned next month that he will have a decided advantage over the youngsters trained in the blue grass region. This son of Uncle lacks a lot of being as big as Hawthorn, the juvenile champion of last year, this track, and he hardly seems built as if he could stand the pace when racing at Latonia last summer. His sire, however, was on the small order and Old Rosebud may prove big enough to master heavy weights and keep on the good record he has begun so auspiciously at Juarez. Ivory Belle, the dam of Old Rosebud, now fourteen years old, is a winning daughter of Hinyar out of that turf queen, Ida Pickwick, which won during her career forty-four races and earned $45,615 on the track. Among her victories were: Two Thousand Sweepstakes at Nashville, St. Louis Fair Oaks, Belle Meade, Missouri and Blue Stakes, Latonia Decoration, Cincinnati Hotel, Autumn, Cash, Queen City and Memorial Handicap. In many of her brilliant successes she carried heavy weights. Indigo, a half-sister to Old Rosebud's granddam, also is noted, having produced the brilliant race horse, Go Between, winner of the Suburban Handicap of 1906. Ivory Belle produced a winner previous to Old Rosebud, in Ivel, by the Futurity winner, Ogden.

Earl Linnell decided at the last moment not to nominate his filly, Maddalena, for the Kentucky Oaks. He worked his daughter of Sempronius a few days ago and as the trial was not perfectly satisfactory he concluded it would be useless to attempt with a maiden the task of beating such high class fillies as Floral Park, Gowell and The Widow Moon. Mr. Linnell has a useful four-year-old, Muir. This horse not only has a good turn of speed, but stays well and is sure to pay his way at Louisville and Latonia this season. Jockey Gross will go to Kentucky with this stable. Mr. Linnell has first call on this good rider's services. Last season Gross rode 145 winners and his record is a record to equal, if not eclipse, in 1913. Only Hill and C. Turner rode more winning races last year than Gross.

The first foal of the season has just come at J. W. Fuller's Texas thoroughbred stud. The youngster is a sister to the speedy filly Nettie Marchmont, by Marchmont out of a daughter of Sempronius and of other mares which are due to foal and he expects to have a good crop of sucklings by May 1. The Texas turfman will probably send a string of horses to the Kentucky tracks this spring. He has several promising two-year-olds that have not faced the barrier yet and all his racing prospects are in good racing condition. At the conclusion of the Juarez meeting he will likely turn injury out and rest that gelding until next winter. Injury has never fancied the going on the tracks in Kentucky and Canada and his owner thinks it would be folly to take him north for another campaign. He figures that the son of Marchmont will only run at his best at Juarez and he has concluded to let him do all his racing there in future.

Irish Ann, which recently won two races for J. F. Newman at Juarez, is the only two-year-old that Texas owner has in training by the Irishman, whose horse is a half brother to Ballyho Boy, the Futurity winner of 1900. The latter was by Kingston out of Ballyho, while The Irishman is a son of Hamburg, by Hanover and is also out of Ballyho. Irish Ann is a handsome filly with an abundance of bone and she has begun her racing career like a performer that will finally go any distance. The Newman stable probably will make a bid for the Kentucky Oaks next season with Irish Ann.

TRAINING GOSSIP FROM LEXINGTON.

Lexington, Ky., March 15.—The heavy rain of Thursday night put the main track at the Kentucky Association grounds out of commission for training purposes yesterday and today, but drying winds have gotten in their work with the result that the footing will be fast tomorrow morning, providing there is no more rain.

The trainers are still talking about the quarter in :23½ that was run Thursday morning by the Allan-a-Dale—Maid of Fortune two-year-old. Its name is Lady Fortune, its owner is James T. Shannon, a well-known local veterinary surgeon, and is trained by Will Perkins.

Charles McKenna's Derby candidate, Foundation, a son of Nasturtium and Meddlesome She, is conceded by the majority of trainers here to be the horse in best condition at the Kentucky Association track. Foundation has Will McDaniel for his trainer and Will McDaniel has the reputation of having saddled the winners of more Derby races than any other man now in the business on this side of the Atlantic.

Will Reed thinks Proctorian will stand training this year. He sent him a half mile in :32½, Thursday morning. The Camden colt is now owned by Sam Niekols, a Woodford County auctioneer and friend of the Master of Hartland Stud.

Woodford Clay has secured the name Breaker for the two-year-old brother to Ocean Bound, by Star Shoot—Flying Ship.

Tom Williams brought the three-year-old Cedar Brook to the track this week. He has had him in a private stable on South Broadway all winter and has been conditioning him on the road.

Clem Pierce has taken up Ed. Emmons' four-year-old gelding Dilatory. This son of Samson and Tardy has been running out at Walter Payne's farm.

Superintendent James P. Ross received this week applications for stallion certificates from D. S. Stearns and Lee Erb for four stallions each for the spring meeting. The first named two are at Louisville and the latter is at Juarez in charge of the string of T. S. Harrison.

The stake book for the spring meeting came from the press today and will be of interest to horsemen and other applicants. The racing program for the eleven days will be prepared by Judge W. H.

Shelley for distribution about the second week in April. Judge Shelley will be here to take up his duties as racing secretary during the last week of this month.

John McLaughlin, the well-known pool auctioneer, has gone to Hot Springs to drink the waters and take the baths in preparation for the activities of the forthcoming racing season.

T. P. Hayes sent his good mare Lillie Turner to the court of Ballot this week, while Talbot Brothers decided to mate Wainamoinen with Ogden.

NEW FRENCH RULE NOT RETROACTIVE.

Thoroughbreds Already Registered in French Stud Book Not Affected by Regulations.

Paris, France, March 15.—M. Lodovic Guillemot, Director des Haras, who has charge of the French Stud Book, is quoted as follows:

"Horses which have come from America and are already registered in our stud book will remain there. The papers relating to pedigrees of horses of Messrs. Vanderbilt, Gould, Whitney, Belmont, Kohler and others are in our hands and everything is in perfect order.

"As for horses which may be imported after the new regulation goes into effect on Saturday, the owners naturally will have to comply with the French rules, no matter from what country they may come. There can be no possible misunderstanding. All that is asked is compliance with our regulations, which are in the best interest of all parties."

M. Guillemot asked to be allowed to suggest to the authors of the American Stud Book that it be divided into two parts, one part to contain only American thoroughbreds whose ancestry has been traced through eight generations, the other to include thoroughbreds whose ancestry contained well-defined strains showing American inbreeding.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The horses of Robert Davies, now quartered at Benning, will begin their 1913 campaign at Norfolk.

Montreal will have about fifty days of thoroughbred racing this year, with meetings at Blue Bonnets, Dorval, King Edward Park and Delorimier Park.

The first thoroughbred foals of the season at Robert Davies' Thorncliffe Farm, at Toronto, are two fillies, both by Bolsover, from Loupania and St. Cecilia.

W. H. Shelley has declined the tender of an appointment as presiding judge for the Cour d'Alone meeting because its acceptance would conflict with his Kentucky engagements.

The stables of J. O. Talbot and J. L. Holland will be divided at the close of the Palmetto Park meeting. The best of the horses will go to Norfolk and the cheaper ones to Marlboro.

Phil Hyams has applied for stable accommodations at Norfolk and will ship there at the close of the Juarez meeting. M. Foley is another owner now racing at Juarez who will transfer his stable to Norfolk.

It is reported that there is a disinclination on the part of the management of the Havre de Grace track to operate with the pari-mutuels. There may be some modification of the ruling of the Harford County Racing Commission restricting the betting to the mutuel method.

Lieut. G. Fred Alpers has purchased Dissenter from W. W. Lowry and he will race him at the amateur meetings in the east this season. Macedonian raced well for Lieut. Alpers until he finally outlived his usefulness and was given away at the end of last season.

For the race meeting at Marlboro next month practically the same officials who conducted the racing at that track last June will officiate. James Milton, who has been presiding at the barrier at Charleston, will do the starting. Hart Denham will be the racing secretary.

New York racing men see further evidence of the likelihood of racing at Saratoga this year in the leasing of the Grand Union Hotel there to William R. d'Ascoli, of the Hotel Ascoli, in New York city. A lease has been made by Frank H. Hathorn, owner of the Grand Union Hotel, to Mr. d'Ascoli, and under its conditions the hotel is to be opened on July 1.

The New Mexico Legislature has passed a law to make gambling of all kinds a misdemeanor punishable by fine and imprisonment or both. It prohibits private games of bridge in homes, where prizes are given, puts a ban on shaking dice for drinks, slot machines, betting on ball games, horse races or prize fights, and forbids raffles and the like at church fairs or lodge socials.

Herman B. Duryea, accompanied by Mrs. Duryea, left New York yesterday for France, where Mr. Duryea's large stable of thoroughbreds is in training. This American turfman was the foremost rank of winning owners on the French turf, besides winning the Two Thousand Guineas with Sweeper II, at Newmarket in 1912. This year he expects to do as well, because his crop of three-year-olds promises better than did the youngsters of a year ago.

NOTES OF THE TURF FROM ABROAD.

Moscato has run his last race over hurdles so far as the present jumping season is concerned and will now be prepared for his future engagements on the flat.

John Porter, the famous trainer of race horses, was severely injured Saturday, March 1, by a fall from a horse. He has been in the hospital since then, but is now recovering and expects to be able to ride again soon.

W. Earl will in future ride as a free lance. Earl, who graduated in the Kingsclere Stable, is a capable and trustworthy horseman, and is not likely to want for mounts, his ability in the saddle having been well proved.

C. Ringstead took up his quarters at Newmarket in readiness for the coming flat race season when he will ride as a free lance regularly and is very fit. He will be able to go to scale at 92 pounds, and is such a wonderfully strong rider at his weight that he should get plenty of mounts. He has been retained to ride Brandimonte in the Lincolnshire Handicap.

The Australian stallion Ayr Laddie, by Ayshire—Catherine Douglas, by Sterling, died a few weeks back. At the end of January, which marks the close of the first half of the Australian racing season, Ayr Laddie was at the head of the list of winning stallions. Last year he was fourth with forty winners of 152 races, worth $8,465. Cider, the winner of the Australian Jockey Club Derby last fall, is a son of Ayr Laddie.

MARES PROVIDED FOR FRENCH FARMERS.

France is evidently determined to make as perfect as possible the great national scheme for breeding all its army horses within the country and a fresh step has been taken in this direction. A little while back the Societe d'Encouragement founded a number of Prix de Cavalerie, and the winners of these races were to be available as government stallions. It has now been decided that 600 broodmares shall be provided by the army, 400 of these mares being supplied from cavalry regiments, and 200 by the artillery. The Minister of War has instructed the military governors of Paris and Lyons, and the commanding generals of the Army Corps, to take such steps as they deem necessary in this matter. All the horse regiments are to contribute mares and experts will examine the stables with a view of selecting such mares as seem specially adapted for breeding purposes. No mare over thirteen years of age is to be taken. The mares will be sold to farmers in the various districts, and as far as possible they will be returned to the district in which they themselves were bred, and the mares will be served each season by the government stallions stationed near by. Before they leave the regiments all the mares will be branded for future identification. Farmers and small breeders have complained for a long time about the difficulty of obtaining suitable mares from which to breed horses capable of passing the government standard for cavalry and artillery, but they will now have no cause for complaint.

WAS NOTED OWNER IN OTHER DAYS.

New York, March 15.—General Frederick C. McLewee, a sportsman who for years cut an important figure on the American turf, died last Wednesday afternoon of heart disease while seated in his office at 20 Church street.

For many years the turf firm of F. C. McLewee & Co. owned and raced some of the most famous horses that have ever been shown in this country. As late as 1902 the silks were still both tremendously popular and successful, and it was in that year that Gold Heels won both the Suburban and the Brighton Handicap for the first. Major Danversfield, winner of $94,580, was another that the same year raced with wonderful success.

In the early nineties the McLewee string was an even more notable one, including Yorkville Belle, winner of $84,229; Delia, winner of $111,042; Don Alonzo, winner of $69,268; Sir Francis, winner of $69,268; and many others that figured prominently in turf history.

For several seasons General McLewee had not taken an active part in the turf, but the deeds of his horses will ever be a bright page in the history of the sport.

TRICKS FOR BEATING THE BOOKMAKERS.

A week or two ago a funny little affair happened at Wye race course. The small Wye telegraph office was suddenly flooded by a shoal of wires from London. The torrent started mysteriously at mid-day, and did not stop till nearly three.

The messages, which were unclassified, turned out to be bogus ones, used simply to block the line. For three hours the two telegraphists were busy taking down messages like "1 am Henry the Eighth, I am," and "A Happy New Year," while dozens of people stood angrily demanding why the line could not get through to London.

The idea in "coups" like this is to get a good price on some horse by preventing the commission agents in town, with whom the bets have been made, from covering themselves by backing that horse on the course, and so spoiling the starting price.

Tricks even more ingenious are sometimes planned by the "heads," or the "Boys of England," as those persons are called who make a profession of racing and whose great object in life is to "beat the bookies."

The cleverest turf trick ever carried out was simply dazzling in its neatness. Some years ago, when one leading sporting paper supplied all the dailies with the racing returns, betting, etc., a man called on the editor of that paper and offered to report an out-of-the-way meeting. He had to be there officially, so could do it cheap. As the meeting was quite unimportant, the offer was accepted.

In due course, the program of the meeting came in and was published in all the papers, followed by the handicaps, the list of arrivals, etc.

The bookmakers in town, of course, looked on freely over the little country meeting. Next day the racing results made the meeting out to be quite successful. The papers complimented the officials, and encouraged them to do even better next year.

Didn't they wish they could! The whole thing was bogus from beginning to end. Town fixtures, judge, jockeys and horses were the pure invention of some brilliant "boy." So was the race course, the racing, too. But the betting was not. Scores of bookmakers lost heavily over races that had never been run.

An attempt was made not long ago to repeat this trick by inventing a small country meeting which fell through only by the merest accident. All the details had not been properly thought out. The bubble was burst when the telegraph department began to make inquiries, their special telegraphists not being able to find the place.

Another dodge depends for its success on the fact that bookmakers have no absolutely hard and fast rule against betting after the time a race is down for. So any one in clubs where betting is done can make a good haul if he can get the news through first, and that without having to excite suspicion by leaving the room.

In one famous case a confederate rented the house next door to the club and had a phone fitted in. The wall between was secretly reduced in thickness and the name of the winner tapped through in Morse code.

Even in the ordinary way the result of a race is known in all public places as if by lightning. How, then, can the ingenious swindler get it first? Well, partly by luck, but for the most part by foresight.

Often a horse's name is sent up a winner long before the race is over, the sender relying on the fact that the horse has a good lead, etc. Ten seconds gained over the official result is as useful at ten minutes.

There was a case in London recently in which a watch was set on a man addicted to betting at the last moment. It was noticed that before leaving he used to keep casually glancing out of the window as if at the house opposite. Some one noticed that whenever a result was about due to arrive a pretty housemaid would shake a duster out of a window opposite.

According to the window used and according to the color of the duster the winner's number was signalled by means of a well-thought-out code, carefully pre-arranged.—Answers.
